

A high-quality, close-up photograph of a round, shallow wicker basket. The basket is made of light brown, woven reeds or bamboo, featuring a tight, uniform weave pattern. It has a single, arched handle made of the same material, which is attached to the rim. The basket is empty and is set against a plain white background. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the texture of the weaving.

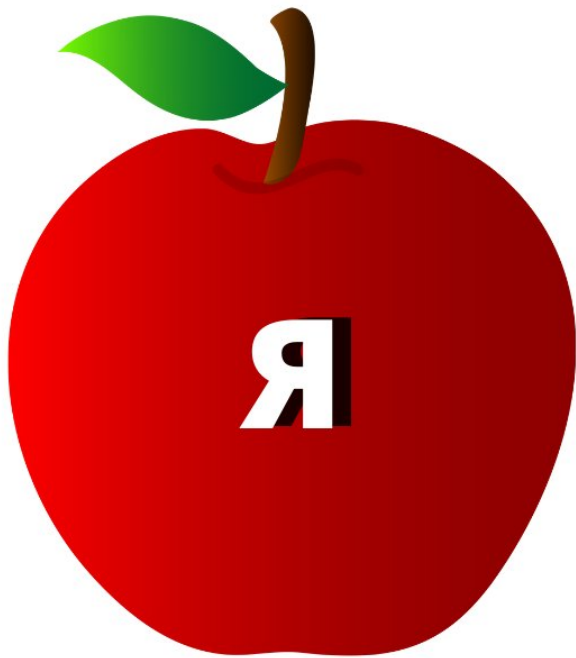

ПРЕДЛОГИ

A high-quality, close-up photograph of a traditional wicker basket. The basket is made of light brown, woven reeds or willow, featuring a tight, uniform weave pattern. It has a wide, shallow body and a single, large, arched handle that curves over the top. The basket is empty and is set against a plain white background. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the texture of the weaving.
